

Don't get egg on your face.

Your admissions essay is the face of your application—make sure it's spotless.

Our in-house essay specialist, Jay Hadfield, is available to schedule first-step consultations, one-on-one essay workshops, and finishing touch editing.

Jay has spent over five years writing English material for 3RPrep, including the answer explanations we use for all our practice tests. His own essays have earned him scholarships, research grants, and other accolades.
